That is the only policy which an honest newspaper need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider that was ever enjoyed by any onstituency than was ever enjoyed by any ther American Journal.

The Sun is the newspaper for the people.

It is not for the rich man against the poor the people against the rich man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party.

There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the regues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or politician. principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are mains—it speaks out for the right. That is The Sun's idea of independence. In this re-spect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

The Sun has fairly carned the hatred of
